

Trustee Service Form 2022

Celebrating Birmingham's History
through Research, Publications, and Education

Thank you for your interest in serving as a Trustee of the Birmingham Historical Society. Trustees serve annually renewable terms from April 1st to March 31st. Society by-laws state that Trustees must first be members, submit their Trustee fees, submit an annual conflict of interest statement (by the date below), attend at least two Trustee meetings or contribute to the Society in another significant way in order to be considered.

If you meet these requirements, please return this Trustee Service Form by February 15th. Note that there are a limited number of Trustees, and all applications must be approved by the Nominating Committee.
